THE ENCHANTED FLUTE

By Paul Terry & Frank Moser

Milton Mouse, Rita and his enchanted flute ride along to a cozy little nook. While they are snuggling close to each other a cannibal steals them both and brings them to the chief chef for soup.

They are about to be cast into the boiling pot when Milt pulls out his flute and starts to play. Its weird music causes their captors to dance. Rita steals away, grabs a plane and comes back to rescue her hero. He catches the dangling ladder, climbs up into the cock-pit, and drives the plane through a cloud causing rain to fall upon the natives.

Milt then tries to kiss Rita, but she jumps overboard with a parachute. Bringing the plane under her Milt grabs her, does a few stunts with the machine and finally gets his just reward.
